

VALLEY
VINEYARDS

FAMILY OWNED SINCE 1970

Winemaker's Dinner Friday, September 14, 2012 7:00 pm

The Wooster Inn has hosted winemakers from around the world, but never before have we had a wine dinner hosted by a family owned winery in Ohio. Joe Schuchter is a third generation member of a wine-making family. His grandfather founded the business, his parents operate the winery and Joe is in charge of marketing and sales.

For the last several years, our Executive Chef and owner, Ken Bogucki has had the opportunity to be a judge for the Ohio Quality Seal program and the Ohio Wine Competition. In each instance, wines are judged on the same criteria as wines from more famous growing regions. Valley Vineyards consistently achieves awards. Since the vineyards are in Southern Ohio, they are able to grow varieties that are familiar but there are also some other hybrids and American varieties that might be new to some of our guests. As always, we will have six wines paired with five courses inspired by those wines
